PUBLISHERS' NOTE

This Genealogical Pamphlet is reprinted from one Privately Printed by Rufus S. Warner, Ludlow, Vermont, about July, 1878. Mr. Warner may or may not have been the author.

The lines represented are largely the Vermont Branch of the Hyde Family, giving the descendants to the Eighth Generation. The edition was of about 25 copies—20 pages text, and the other pages were added and tipped in as the author obtained additional information—up to the year 1885.

No change has been made by us. We have reproduced Mr. Warner's Pamphlet in the exact form in which he made it. The unnumbered pages after page 20 were added by him after the first printing in 1887. The notation in brackets, page 4A, was originally written by him in script with a pen. We also have made an explanation of a correction slip that was pasted in the original (being descendants of Mary and Timothy).

We have published and sold Genealogies and Vermont items for a great many years and this is the only copy we have ever seen of this item. It is not in the Library of Congress Check List of 1919 or located in any of the large collections of Genealogies, private or public, in America, as far as we can find out. We have sold the original, from which this was reprinted, for $50.00, and on account of its scarcity and importance we are reprinting it in an edition of 100 copies.
